To the School of Music Student Council
Mark Koehneke, President:

The Minority Students' Association of the School of Music would like to request $200 from the Student Council to make possible the presentation of a recital of music by Black composers in celebration of Black History Week. The recital would be held in the Rackham Assembly Hall on February 26, 1978 at 4 p.m. Approximately 35 students would be involved as performers and as committeemen.

The projected budget is as follows:

Publicity (posters, flyers, etc.)	$ 72
Programs	28
Reception	100
Total	$200

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Oral Moses, President
Minority Students' Association of the School of Music
