

CITIZEN OF THE DAY

MR. WILLIS PATTERSON, a native of Ann Arbor and once a singing student in the University of Michigan School of Music, returns to the school this month as Associate Professor of Music. Mr. Patterson earned his Bachelor of Music degree at the school in 1958 and his masters in 1959. He was a fellowship student at the Manhattan School of Music and pursued postgraduate work in voice and opera in Germany. Since 1962, Mr. Patterson has been associate Professor of music at Virginia State College. In addition to his teaching responsibilities he has pursued an active concert career, both as soloist and with numerous opera companies in Europe and the United States.
